Tidings from the East

I do hope that we have seen the last of the flooding for this year, and pray for all who have been impacted. We have been making several visitations this year and were surprised to see how much water was standing in our southern counties. While trying to stay positive, I hope that there is enough moisture left in the ground this spring in our area to ensure a good mushroom hunt.

As I had mentioned, our brothers and I have been visiting local lodges. We have visited Bremen, Mishawaka, Knox and Rochester lodges so far this year, and have several more planned. We have been meeting up at various locations and carpooling to these lodges. If interested, check our website and feel free to call me for meeting times and locations for upcoming visitations.

Our lodge has been honored to host this year's area conference and two workshops. Area conference was Wednesday March 28th. We had a nice attendance.

Future workshops include Travelers Journey and Ritual Workshop. Traveler's journey will be on Thursday April 19th at 7:00 PM., and the Ritual Workshop will be on Saturday April 21st at 10:00 AM. It is essential that all officers attend. All who are interested are encouraged to attend as well.
